

juveniles to correct deviance/illegal/antisocial behavior.

Perform essential and administrative functions as part of effectuating arrests including taking fingerprints, gathering and preserving evidence.

Utilize and maintain specialty law enforcement equipment including, but not limited to radar/LIDAR, Taser, and nonlethal weapons.

Observes the general public to detect suspicious activities; investigates such observations including appropriate and necessary questioning of individuals, and gathering physical evidence.

Make all efforts to locate stolen property to effectuate the return thereof to the owner.

Performs the duties of special functions officers and enforces Wellington City ordinances.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

A Reserve Police Officer works in a variety of working conditions. Those conditions will run the extreme from an office environment with little or no physical discomfort from noise, dust and temperature to the extremes of outdoor conditions with extreme hot and cold temperatures, blowing dust and dirt, and physical requirements of apprehending and controlling suspects.

DISCLAIMER:

The above information is intended to describe the general nature of this position and is not intended to be considered a complete statement of duties, responsibilities and requirements.